

Participants view a contest entry from the social media campaign of students from the University of Mindanao.

Participants enjoy the training (from left to right): Ms. Lorna Serwelas, Mr. Manuel Cantos, Mr. John Joven, and Ms. Emily de Jesus.

Ms. Lagos discusses a compliance-based training program.

Prof. Roman discusses the definition of an integrity-based framework.

Ms. Emily de Jesus, owner of Parmasiyutika Drugstore and General Merchandise, poses a question to Ms. Camua.

Participants prepare to present their answers to the corruption scenarios activity.

Dr. Lemuel Magracia, President of PCCI-Rizal, discusses his group's outputs during the corruption scenarios activity.

Participants write down their answers to the "Design a Training Program for SMEs" activity.

Participants pose for a group picture with the AIM Hills Program organizers.